the curse of intemperance, closing with, last but not least, Washington's favorite, Charley Nye. To Charley more than to any single individual is due the credit for the success of the Dashaways. Words were inedequate to express the feeling of respect and homage paid him by the people of this District for his manily course in the temperance cause. He has been consistent throughout in it, and without a single seriah motive other than the good of his fellow-men. He was, as is always the case, listened to with marked attention. Charley announced that the Right Reverend Hishop William Pinchney would deliver a locture for the benefit of the Dashaways on the 20th Instant, due notice of place to be advertised in the papers. Fifty-Second Anniversary Meeting at Fourth Presbyterian Church. The fifty-second anniversary of the Washington City Bible Society was appropriately celebrated yesterday afternoon in the Ninth-street Prebyterian church. The meeting was largely attended and much interest was manifested in the work of the society. How Hiram Price, of Lowa, was the first speaker. His theme was "The Bible, the Formadation of Constitutional Government," and his address was elequent and rich in imagery. Hou, Zohuon Vance, of North Carolina, followed, and spoke upon "The Prepainty of Our Civil and Bollgious Libertles Rests upon the Bible." His remarks were most interesting. Rev. J. H. Elliott, S. T. D., delivered a thoughtful address on "The Inspiration of the Bible," and Rev. W. W. Patton, D. D., closed with an address on "The Bible, Good. Will for Man's Salvation." The annual report read by the secretary states that the society has kept an agret in the field the entire year, who has unde 2500 general calls, collected 560-71, sold and distributed 427 Bibles and 585 Testaments, hade fifty-four public addresses in favor of the world-wide distribution of the Bible, and secured nearly five hundred annual members by the payment of one dollar each per year, from persons representing severteen Methodist churchs, the Pre-byterian churches, ten Baptist churches, seven Episcopal churches, two Latheran churches, Seven Episcopal churches, two Latheran churches, Congregational, New Jerusalem and Unitarian churches—fifty-two churches in all.

Church collections in behalf of the Bible cause have been taken up in Wesley M. E. church, Fourth street church, Hyland M. E. church, Metropolitan Presbyterian churchs, and contributions received from McKendres, and contributions of the Riches and Memorial Latheran churches, amounting in all to Sidi-00, while the Sabbath-schools of Bethlehom and Christian Baptist and Mount Zion and Union Wesley churches have contributed $1,30.

— Charles Aze, a young man employed in the place department of the Government Printing Office, was discharged last Saturdey owing to alleged fraudulent practices. Aze, it is charged, violatinized the office quite extensively by manufacturing "dupes," or the slips which printers keep, and from which their accounts are made up. Aze, had access to the galleys, and made slips for himself, impressing them with the peculiar roller used to prevent counterfeits. He would have printers paste these "dupes" on their string for him and collect the money. An investigation is being made by Foreman Lavis, and it is not known now how much the Government has lost by Axe's operations.

Arrival of Forepaugh's Combination—The Torchlight Procession. Forepaugh's great combination arrived in the city asi Salurday. Saturday night the torchlight procession took place according to the programme announced in THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, except that the route of march was currailed. The display was one of the most brilliant and imposing ever seen in this city. The streets along the line of march were througed with people. The scene on Pennsylvania svenue during the passage of the procession, with its magnificent pageantry, a myriad of lights, gaily plumed knights, huge clephants and other accessories, reminded one of a grand carnival. The exhibition will be opened to day at the grounds, corner of Ninth and S streets, the first performance being given this afternoon. The afternoon performance will begin at 2 and the doors will be open at 1 o'clock. The programme at the afternoon performance will be the same as that offored at hight, so that ladies and children, unable to steend the evening performance, will be able to see extrything in the afternoon.

The menagaric is very complete, and filled with specimens of the most interesting members of the animal kingdom. In reference to the circus performance, the following is quoted from a Philadel animal kingdom. In reference to the circus performance, the following is quoted from a Philadelphia paper:

"Some idea can be formed of the programme offered when it is stated that there were sevention acts, making a total of thirty-four different features. If there was any fault it was because there was too much of a good thing, as one pair of eyes could hardly watch a performance by four acrobats in one ring while a man was being shot out of a cannon to an altitude of forty feet in the other ring. Everything was on the grandest scale. Two bands discoursed music continually, one striking up as soon as the other left off. The grant entree was made by twelve gentlemen in the husting costium of the time of Louis Quatorze in one ring, and ten knights and indics in gilitering armor in the other. The bands played and the horses caracoled and went through the usual maneauves.
Then followed the performed the most astonishing evolutions, but the climax was reached when young Forepaugh put his head in the mouth of one of the largest. Then followed slack wire and tight-rope performances, tumbling aces and bareback riding. Men and women hung by their heels high up in the air, and others showed how they could ride in every way except the usual manner.
The audience was entreated to preserve strict silence while a man was shot from the mouth of a cannon and caught by a women suspended from a trapeze.

"The great feature of the whole performance was
